Keep Victoria's Secret a Secret

Ladies, we've either seen other ladies playing a game of peek-a-boo thong, or it has, embarassingly enough, happened to us. What is a girl to do when you don't want to become a victim of VPL? Wear a Hip-T of course. The solution came to me in a form of a SheFinds e-mail. Hip-T is one of those creations that you wish you thought of yourself, but glad that someone at least did. Hip-T is just that but without the tee. It's a piece of stretch fabric worn over your jeans and underneath your top so you can avoid peeking 'through the cracks.'

Hip-T. $19.95. Comes in all basic colors!
